Hey Noreen

Tomorrow at 9:45, Rob will update the GRSG website.

We talked about using the following quote in the web blurb on the home page, but we never discussed the attribution of the quote - and never really discussed it with HQ either.

“We’re pleased that BLM and USFS recognize that strong, effective, final federal land management plans are vital for successful greater sage-grouse conservation, and essential for the Service’s evaluation of whether the species still warrants federal protection."

Should it be you? Or Dan?

I'm going to attribute to you as a placeholder. Rob Mansheim (cc'd) can update tomorrow before it goes live if we want to change it.
