The week of the 15th might actually work better. I'll ask Thomas and Ros to also block off the week of the 15th, just in case. Are you expecting to need the entire week?

It is possible we may still be able to make that week work, however, I wanted you to know we have slightly slipped in our internal schedule. We will be working with our 3 region team May 26 – until done to prepare a recommendation for Dan. We may still be able to make that week of June 8 work with Dan, and that is our goal, however, on the off chance we cannot, I see Dan's calendar is relatively free the week of June 15, and I wanted to mention this in case you wanted to make a notation about the possibility of the briefing slipping one week.
