From: Mackey, Dennis
To: Hendricks, Kathleen
Cc: Jason Pyron; Katie Powell; Brandon Miller; Michael Carrier
Subject: Re: CED results for Idaho
Date: Friday, March 13, 2015 1:29:38 PM

Wow. That's impressive! Thanks for doing all the adjustments. I know it was a lot of extra work.

Dennis

On Fri, Mar 13, 2015 at 11:24 AM, Hendricks, Kathleen <kathleen_hendricks@fws.gov> wrote:

> Thought you'd like to know the summary of conservation efforts entered for ID to address the following threats in MZ II and IV (ID). We were only asked to certify those projects of 500 acres or greater but the below numbers included all entries for ID.
>
> Conifer encroachment: 37,000 acres of removal
> Fire (fuel breaks, reseedings): 162,000 acres (several duplicate entries so probably less acres)
> Infrastructure (fence marking primarily): 1500 miles (very little fence removal)
> Noxious weeds (herbicide mostly): 116,000 acres (some duplicate entries so probably less acres)
>
> I did deny several transmission line retrofits (~15,000 miles) that were entered to address the threat of infrastructure...I felt that the retrofits sort of addressed predation but the negative effect (poles/lines) were still in place.
>
> If you want to see spreadsheets I save them all.

--
Dennis Mackey
Deputy State Supervisor
U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service
Boise, Idaho
Office: 208-378-5267
Cell: 208-860-1970