Thanks Dawn. I updated the two Forman articles. In the future, you should feel free to make those kinds of changes as you notice them. I don't mind doing it but sometimes it can be more time consuming for you to have to explain the problem. To edit a citation, you just click the little pencil/paper icon in the gray bar that's above each reference. It's self explanatory from there.

I also added the Zouhar citation to RefWorks. I do want to get those pdfs from you but let's wait until May after you've finished your stint in the cave. We can do an M drive collection/transfer at that point.

I will work on getting these other references added to RefWorks. Looking at your list, I know that some of these are already on the site (Knick 2013 and Manier 2011 for instance) but others aren't so I'm hoping it won't take too long.
