Hmmmm... Yeah, I think I booked at the time that was open (which was 2:00 pm your time and 4:00 pm my time). Are you available at 1:00 pm your time? It looks like you might have a prior engagement, but if 1:00 pm works for you, that would probably be better for me.

Is that doable?

Thanks!
K

Yes, lets chat. What time works for you?

It seems like the GIS team has a lot of coordinators and not many doers. I know Lara wants to dive in, but it will depend on Drue if she actually has time. Depending on how the rest of the responses go we may need to rethink that teams objectives.

Hi Kevin-

As you probably saw, I was flying yesterday. I'm in today, though.

Would you be up for chatting this afternoon?

Thanks!

Kate,

Do you have time today to chat about how we want to work on the outline? I will be out Thursday afternoon - Tuesday morning closing on a house and getting my family moved in. I am super flexible on timing right now.

Cheers
Kevin
