OK, thanks. We'll catch up with you once we get something to review from the Council (like I mentioned - probably the 17th). Good luck with the flooding!

I will do what I can, but I'm out the entire week of the 23rd (at the sage-grouse task force meeting and the federal family meeting with the BLM and FS), and will be spending much of next week prepping for that travel. So calling in to the meeting is not an option but will try to do a quick review.
