Please read the following assurances, sign, and return with your application to indicate your understanding and acceptance of the requirements for participation in the CWRS Educational Grant Program.

STATEMENT OF ASSURANCES

The recipient organization understands and gives full assurance that:

- All CWRS funds will be used for the specific purposes indicated in the grant application; funded field trips must be to a national wildlife refuge and coordinated with Refuge staff (cindy_heffley@fws.gov; 252-987-1118).
- Any funds not expended during the school year in which the project is approved will be forfeited. Applications may be re-submitted the following year to extend a project or begin a new project.
- Project staff will regularly update assigned CWRS board member who will also serve as a “Project Champion.”
- Project staff will share information regarding the project’s success/failures with others who may benefit by duplication of the project.
- An Accountability form with a project evaluation will be provided to CWRS within one month of the project’s completion, but no later than June 15.
- Documentation/invoices will be provided to CWRS within one month of the project’s completion, but no later than June 15.
- The Coastal Wildlife Refuge Society shall be given prominent recognition as a sponsor of the program in all presentation and publicity materials. The CWRS logo should appear with the following statement whenever possible: This project is supported by a grant from the Coastal Wildlife Refuge Society, supporting eastern North Carolina National Wildlife Refuges.
- CWRS /USFWS have permission to use any photos to promote the grants program or other CWRS /Refuge activities. In addition, copies of any products resulting from projects must be made available to CWRS/USFWS for promotional purposes.

The awarded applicant, its successors and/or assignees agree to indemnify and hold the CWRS and the US Fish & Wildlife office, its directors, both individually and collectively, and employees thereof harmless from any and all monetary liability, loss, or damage which the CRWS, its directors, both individually and collectively, and employees may suffer as a result of claims, demands, costs of judgments against them or any nature whatsoever resulting from or in any way arise out of the awarded applicants project.
