Northeast Region 5
2 Fellowship Positions Available

The U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service (USFWS), Northeast Region 5 in partnership with the Student Conservation Association is offering eight fellowships opportunities across Massachusetts, Maine, Maryland and Virginia. Applications will be accepted from college undergraduate and graduate students only. The Directorate Resource Assistant Fellows Program (DFP) is an 11-week summer fellowship designed to provide students and opportunity to work on projects that focus on conservation, wildlife biology and related fields of study. The fellowships are an 11-week program, and the 2015 DFP will begin late May or early/mid June.

USFWS will pay the travel costs for DFP participants to travel to the duty station of their assigned project and return to home/school, and free lodging will be available at some USFWS duty stations. These fellowships may include field specific training in addition to a week of leadership training at the National Conservation Training Center in Shepherdstown, West Virginia.

As a DFP participant, you will have an opportunity to apply classroom theories, principles and concepts to real-world situation, network and develop relationships with USFWS program officials and staff.

Upon successful completion of your DFP fellowship and your degree requirements, you may be appointed into a permanent position with USFWS. You must meet the eligibility requirements and the education and/or experience qualifications for the permanent position.

DFP Program Eligibility:

- Must be a U.S. Citizen or legal resident
- Must have a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher on a scale of 4.0

Project Number: DFP15R5EXT01

Housing: Housing may be available.

Location: FWS Region 5 Office, Hadley, Massachusetts (other possible locations - Philadelphia, PA, Baltimore, MD)

Project Description: This Fellow will develop an education and outreach strategy and tools to reach Spanish-speaking communities in the Northeast region, targeting three of the largest Spanish-speaking markets in the Northeast: New York/NJ metro area; Washington DC/Northern Virginia; and Philadelphia/Southern NJ/Delaware. The Fellow will write and promote three, weekly Spanish language outreach posts for non-traditional media, emphasizing public visitation opportunities at FWS National Wildlife Refuges and National Fish Hatcheries. They will develop Spanish-language visitor guides and outreach materials for urban refuges. They will also work with the FWS Office of Migratory Birds and Service partners to develop more direct, collaborative outreach opportunities for international species of concern – focused specifically on bird species that migrate from the Northeast to Spanish-speaking countries in Latin America and the Caribbean. The work of the Fellow will result in broader public outreach and an enhanced relationship with local communities who are unfamiliar with FWS.

Minimum Qualifications and Major Required: Undergraduate (rising senior) - Communications or Environmental Education.

Desired Skills / Experience:

- Knowledge of other languages preferred.
- Ability to communicate well orally and in writing.
- Experience working with social media.
- Knowledge of Latino audiences/markets in the New England area.
- Ability to work with urban audiences and Spanish language organizations.

Key Requirements: Spanish speaker required. Must be able to read, write and speak Spanish fluently.
