

Volunteer Caretaker Lanphere Dunes Unit, Humboldt Bay NWR.

Volunteer job summary: The Caretaker contributes 20 hrs per week and is responsible for maintenance of Unit infrastructure including buildings and vehicles, safety code enforcements, trail upkeep, signage inventory and upkeep, recycling, and transportation of refuge to dump. Additionally and as needed the Caretaker assists with invasive plant removal, oversees crews and volunteers, and assists biologists with monitoring or research. The Caretaker resides in the Unit residence and rent, utilities cell phone, and internet connection are provided. Couples are accepted but only one person may hold the position. Pets other than an indoor cat are not allowed. Vacation and sick leave provided. Hours must include two full weekdays and one half weekend day. Submit a resume to andrea_pickart@fws.gov.