

Internship at Big Oaks National Wildlife Refuge

BIOLOGICAL INTERNS/VOLUNTEERS (2-3) needed for wildlife management activities and public use in southeastern Indiana. The intern (s) will assist the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service staff on Big Oaks National Wildlife Refuge, which is overlaid on the closed Jefferson Proving Ground. Positions are available from March thru December 2009; dates flexible for applicants enrolled in school. Duties include habitat restoration (20%), monitoring wildlife populations (20%), measuring and monitoring vegetation (5%), data entry (5%), clerical work (20%), visitor check-in and general refuge maintenance/operations (30%). Successful applicants must be able to work well with others or unsupervised and endure inclement weather and rugged conditions. Interns/volunteers must be dependable, enthusiastic, and maintain good humor while working early mornings or late evenings. The work could last 3 to 6 months depending on funding. Volunteer/interns would be provided housing and monthly subsistence (approximately $660/month). Please send a cover letter, resume, and list of references. Applications will be reviewed as they are received. Joseph R. Robb, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, 1661 West JPG Niblo Rd., Madison, IN 47250.
