Wildlife Wednesdays

Wed. nights in June, July and August
7:00pm-9:30pm

Join us Wednesdays this month for an evening guided auto tour of the Refuge backcountry. We'll be on the lookout for a variety of wildlife, while sharing refuge history and management practices.

Making Tracks

Saturday, June 21 2:00pm
Friday, June 27 2:00pm
Saturday, July 5 2:00pm

Join us for an introduction to reading animal sign. You'll learn where to look for sign, the keys to identification, and even how to take tracks home with you. This program combines an indoor discussion of techniques and outdoor experience. Approximately one hour

Painting Seney's Scenery

Monday, June 16 9:00am
Tuesday, June 24 6:00pm
Sunday, June 29 2:00pm

Aspiring artists of all ages and skill levels are invited to an organized and directed painting workshop on the refuge! Materials will be provided, though advanced artists may bring their own materials for best results. Participants are encouraged to submit their final pieces to be displayed in the Visitor Center. Come enjoy the scenery, and create your own piece of art. Sessions are likely to last about 3 hours.

Seney's Horses?

Sunday, June 15 2:00pm – 4:00pm
Sunday, June 22 11:00am – 1:00pm
Monday, June 30 11:00am – 1:00pm

Stop by this activity booth to find out what Sandhill cranes and horses have in common along with other fascinating information about these long legged birds. The booth will be open during listed hours.

Flowers and Folklore

Thursday, June 12 2:00pm
Saturday, June 14 2:00pm

Let's take a walk to look at some of Seney's plants and discover just how fascinating they can be. Approximately 1 hour, easy walking.

Friendly Flames

Friday, June 13 4:00pm
Tuesday, June 17 7:00pm
Saturday, June 28 2:00pm

Fire offers many benefits to the plants and animals of Seney Refuge. During this PowerPoint presentation you'll learn about these benefits and discover how Refuge staff are using fire to manage for certain wildlife species.

Thursday, June 5, 19, July 3 7:00am
Thursday, June 12, 26 7:00pm

There are some things that naturally go together like mom and apple pie, peanut butter and jelly sandwiches, and photography and the Seney National Wildlife Refuge. The Refuge offers an amazing diversity of birds and wildlife as well as lots of landscapes that beg to be photographed. With that in mind, use this opportunity to join up with other amateur photographers to explore the refuge, look for great shots, and share photos and skills. You should have a working knowledge of your equipment and come prepared for a variety of weather and bug conditions.

Guided Auto Tours

Tuesday, June 10 & July 1 10:00am
Friday, June 20 & July 4 10:00am

Enjoy a casual outing into the backcountry with a member of our seasonal staff. A great opportunity to check out the habitats behind the gates. Tours last approximately 2 ½ hours.
