2012 REFUGE EAGLE TOUR INFORMATION

WINTER'S HERE & EAGLES ARE NEAR!

U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service staff and volunteers at Detroit River International Wildlife Refuge are excited to announce the return of one of the Refuge's most popular public programs. The annual Refuge Eagle Tour has been scheduled and will be offered for a limited number of visitors at the DTE Energy Monroe Power Plant in January.

Due to the increasing popularity of this program and its limited space, some aspects of the registration process have changed. Please read this document carefully in order to ensure your registration application is received and eligible for consideration.
