

Pollinator Day

Celebrating the 2nd Annual National Pollinator Week

Come and see what the buzz is about at Morton National Wildlife Refuge as we celebrate the world of pollinators.

Saturday, June 27th, 2009

1pm-4pm

Morton National Wildlife Refuge
2595 Noyac Road, Sag Harbor, NY 11937

A FREE family fun event that all ages are sure to enjoy!

Schedule

1-1:30 Pollinator Basics

If you eat chocolate, fruits or vegetables, chances are you have a pollinator to thank! Learn the basics about pollination and why it's important to you.

1:30-2:15 Habitat Hike

Hike the trails of Morton and discover the diversity of flowering plants and their pollinators. Find out ways you can enhance habitat in your own backyard.

2:15-3:00 Up Close and Personal

View pollinators up close at our new native garden and participate in a flower dissection.

3:00-4:00 Pollinator Arts & Crafts

Take Pollinator Day home with you! Make your own flower and special pollinator.

Directions: From Sunrise Hwy (Route 27), Go North on North Sea Rd (CR 38). Turn right on Noyac Rd for 5 miles. Entrance is on the left.
