

National Hunting & Fishing Day

Patuxent Research Refuge
North Tract
Sunday, September 12th
1-4pm - FREE

SEE how dogs help hunters retrieve wildlife.

EXPLORE wildlife habitats with a guide.

LEARN about wildlife conservation and hunting and fishing opportunities.

Tie Flies to attract fish.

View archery demonstrations.

Engage in craft activities for young children.

Patuxent Research Refuge North Tract is located 1.4 miles east of the Baltimore-Washington Parkway, off Route 198 east of Laurel. Call 301-776-3090 for more information or visit <http://patuxent.fws.gov>. Accommodations for individuals with special needs are available with a two week advance notice.