

Okefenokee National Wildlife Refuge Celebrates

Earth Day and National Wildlife Week

With a fun

Bicycle Tour & Litter Pick-up

Saturday, April 18, 2009 8am—2pm

Bring Your
Bicycle!

“Let’s Go Outside!”

- Enjoy exhibits and demonstrations about wildlife, plants, wildland fire, fishing, nature photography, swamp culture, hiking, bicycling, recycling and much more.
- Discover some of the amazing plants and animals found in the refuge
- Create nature crafts
- See live animals!
- Get a free bicycle safety check
- Find out what local organizations do in your community
- Learn about what you can do to help protect the Earth

- 8am—10am- Earth Day Litter Pickup
- - Meet at Prospect Church off Highway 121/23. Call 912-496-7836 to sign up or for more information. Participants receive a free pass into the refuge.
- 9am- Bicycle Ride from Folkston to Refuge and back - Meet at Okefenokee Education Research Center on Hwy. 40 in Folkston - Contact Terry Landreth, Team Camden Cycling, at 912-576-9696 for information.
- 10am—2pm- “Discover Okefenokee” Bicycle Tour on Swamp Island Drive
- - 9 mile tour for bicycles or cars with stations along the way showcasing the environment, Okefenokee, and the local community.

Free reusable tote bags will be handed out to participants who visit all booths (while supplies last)

Exhibitors/Sponsors include:

- *U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service
- *Okefenokee Wildlife League
- *Okefenokee Adventures
- *Camden Cycling Club
- *Driftwood Education Center

*Okefenokee National Wildlife Refuge is located 12 miles southwest of Folkston off Hwy. 121/23. Refuge entrance fee required. For more information, please contact the Visitor Center at 912-496-7836
Web site: <http://www.fws.gov/okefenokee>*