

ASERP Speakers List

1. *Phil Herzig - USFWS - Sunderland Office of Fisheries Assistance - Stocking salmon & monitoring fish populations in the river; 413/548-9138
2. *Laurie Sanders - WFCR Field Notes Mon. 7:30 a.m.; US Extension; Naturalist; 413/577-1371
3. *Curt Orvis - USFWS - Engineering - Fishway planning, design & culverts; 413/253-8288
4. *Mickey Novak - USFWS - Richard Cronin National Salmon Station - Salmon Hatchery Tours; 413/548-9010
5. *Jan Rowan - USFWS - Connecticut River Coordinator's Office - 4-State Migratory Fish Restoration Program; 413/548-9138
www.fws.gov/r5crc
6. *Caleb Slater – MAFW – Anadromous Fish Coordinator – MA Migratory Fish Restoration Program; 508/792-7270 ext133
7. *Kim Noyes – NUSCO – Fishway Tours at Holyoke and Turners Falls; 413/659-4462
8. *Terry Tarr – USFWS – Law Enforcement; Will arrange Special Agent speakers; 413/253-8341
9. *Beth Goettel – USFWS – SO Conte NFWR – Eagles; 413/863-0209 ext3
www.R5RW_SOC@fws.gov
9. *George Haas – USFWS – Migratory Birds, waterfowl, neotropicals, etc; 413/253-8576
10. *Tim Fannin – USFWS – Contaminants, Chemical Spills, Superfund Sites; 413/253-8646
11. *Rita Thibodeau – Greenfield NRCS; 413/772-0384
12. *Steve Rideout – USGS-BRD – Conte Anadromous Fish Research Center – Will arrange laboratory tours and speakers on fish passage, fish physiology, fish behavior, fish genetics; 413/863-3802
13. *Steve McCormick – USGS-BRD – Conte Anadromous Fish Research Center – fish physiology, juvenile salmon migration; 413/863-3804
14. *Don Pugh – USGS-BRD – Conte Anadromous Fish Research Center – Investigations into adult salmon spawning in Westfield River; 413/863-3832
15. *Dick Muller – Wetlands Protection and Their Importance (West County schools only); 413/628-3895

16. *Mass Wildlife:

Project leaders at Westborough
508/792-7270

Byrne, Bill	Wildlife Photography
Cardoza, Jim	Black Bear and Turkey
French, Tom	Assistant Director – Threatened and Endangered Species
Hartley, Richard	Environmental assessment, lake and pond inventory/population assessment, aquatic vegetation, warmwater fish, northern pike, sportfishing awards program
Henner, Crissie	Furbearer Biologist (beaver, coyote, mink, bobcat, fox, fisher...)
Heusmann, H	Waterfowl biologist
Landry, Pam	Conducts Project Wild & Aquatic Wild Teacher Workshops; ext. 110
Larson, Marian	Information and education outreach
Richards, Todd	Stream biologist, stream inventory, population assessments, flow issues
Simmons, Ken	Trout Project, hatcheries and stocking
Simmons, Tim	Ecologist – fire ecology

Each district office has Fisheries and Wildlife biologists that are also available.

Central District, W. Boylston	508/835-3607
CT Valley District, Belchertown	413/323-7632
Western District, Pittsfield	413/447-9789
Northeast District, Acton	978/263-4347
Southeast District, Buzzard's Bay	508/759-3406

17. If people are interested in having someone speak to their group, and are not specifically interested in a MassWildlife project, I refer them to the following:

Marcia Wilson, Eyes on Owls, slide presentation and live owls	978/649-3779
Tom Ricardi, Western Mass. Bird of Prey facility, live raptors and slides	413/369-4072
Mike Tougias, slide lectures featuring natural history, hiking, day trips	508/520-8843
Amber Santangelo, Wild Again, wildlife rehabilitation, bats	508/279-1444
Norm Smith, Trailside Museum, live animals, raptor banding	617/333-0690

These folks typically charge a fee and/or mileage to cover costs. Prices are variable.