The Draft Comprehensive Conservation Plan/Environmental Impact Statement (Draft CCP/EIS) for the Sweetwater Marsh and South San Diego Bay Units of the San Diego Bay National Wildlife Refuge is expected to be released for public review in the next few weeks. Your comments regarding the content and analysis presented in the Draft CCP/EIS are important to us. By providing you with a preview of the alternatives, we hope to assist you in your review and understanding of the proposals and the various issues evaluated in the document. We will also discuss the various opportunities available for reviewing the Draft and for providing your comments.

We appreciate your continued support of the Refuge and the CCP process.
