

Fish Species Information

Name: Pahrnagat roundtail chub
Scientific Name: Gila robusta jordani
Family: Cyprinidae
Photo:
Brief Description: Freshwater fish growing up to 10 inches. Have scales above and below the lateral line. It is a greenish color with dark blotches. Pahrnagat roundtail chub are elongated fish with a narrow caudal peduncle.
Status: Endangered, October 13, 1970
Native Area: Historically found in the spring waters in the Pahrnagat Valley, Lincoln County, Nevada. Now confined to the Ash Springs and the Pahrnagat River downstream through the Burns Ranch.
Comments: The Dexter National Fish Hatchery & Technology Center, Dexter, New Mexico, maintains a refugia population.