

Tennessee National Wildlife Refuge

“Back to the Old 23rd”

A celebration of wildlife, history and heritage

Big Sandy
Peninsula
Sat. Nov. 1st
9:00 am—5:00

Spend a beautiful fall day outdoors on the refuge as we dedicate our new observation deck and hiking trail. The day includes a complimentary picnic on the grounds of historic Mt. Zion church with featured speaker Chris Evans, historian and author of “South of the Mouth of Sandy”.

FEATURED ACTIVITIES:
FREE PICNIC, MUSIC, HAYRIDES, GUIDED
BIRDING, HIKING AND HISTORY TOURS

Map on reverse, for information: 731/642-2091

Schedule of activities:

- 9:00 – 10:30 Early birding tour: led by Happy Chambers
- 11:00 - 11:30 Observation Deck and Trail Dedication
- 11:30 – 12:30 Complimentary old fashioned picnic at Mt. Zion Church
- 12:30 - 1:00 Featured Speaker: Chris Evans, local historian, author
- 1:00 – 4:30 History hayrides, guided birding tours, guided hikes

To RSVP or for more information call 731-642-2091.

DIRECTIONS:

From Camden or Paris:

- Follow highway 69 A to Big Sandy
- Take Lick Creek Road north from Big Sandy 13 miles
- Turn left onto gravel road at Refuge entrance sign (Brown w/ blue goose)
- Mt. Zion church is 1.5 miles on left

EVENT SPONSORED BY:
*Friends of Tennessee
National Wildlife Refuge*