

The Tribal Liaison:

“...will work to enhance both our relationships with tribal governments and our value to them by improving communication and cooperation, providing technical expertise, and sharing training and assistance. We acknowledge and respect the diverse Native American religious, spiritual, and cultural identities, and their understanding of ecosystems and cultural resources. We will listen to and consider the traditional knowledge, experience, and perspectives of Native American people to manage fish, wildlife, and cultural resources. “
