How do I apply for a permit?

Applications and instructions for native endangered and threatened species permits can be found on our Permits website at: <http://www.fws.gov/endangered/permits/index.html>, or by contacting your closest Regional Endangered Species office.

A fee is required to apply for a permit, and to amend an existing permit. Please see the instructions in each permit application form for further information. Applicants should allow at least 90 days for processing the completed application.

What about other types of permits?

For information on ESA permits issued by NMFS, go to: <http://www.nmfs.noaa.gov/pr/permits/>.

The FWS Division of Management

Authority issues import/export permits for native species and all permits for foreign species. Visit the Web site at: <http://www.fws.gov/international/permits/>.

For information on other types of FWS permits, visit our main permit Web site at <http://www.fws.gov/permits/>.
