Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) – Notice

For organizations, businesses, or individuals operating as a business (i.e., permittees not covered by the Privacy Act), we request that you identify any information that should be considered privileged and confidential business information to allow the Service to meet its responsibilities under FOIA. Confidential business information must be clearly marked "Business Confidential" at the top of the letter or page and each succeeding page and must be accompanied by a non-confidential summary of the confidential information. The non-confidential summary and remaining documents may be made available to the public under FOIA [43 CFR 2.13(c)(4), 43 CFR 2.15(d)(1)(i)].

Application Processing Fee

The fee to process this application for an Enhancement of Survival permit is $50. This fee applies to new permit applications and to renewals of existing valid permits. The fee to process a significant amendment to an existing valid Enhancement of Survival permit is $25. Significant amendments are those that pertain to the purpose and conditions of the permit, and that are not purely administrative. Checks should be made payable to "U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service." The appliction processing fee is assessed to partially cover the cost of processing a request for a permit, and does not guarantee the issuance of a permit. The fee will not be refunded under any circumstances. However, we may return your check to you if you withdraw your application before we have significantly processed it (refer to 50 CFR 13.11(d)).

There is no fee for minor amendments to an existing valid permit (such as updating your name and address information). These minor administrative changes are required under 50 CFR 13.23(c).

The fee requirement does not apply to any federal, tribal, state, or local government agency or to any individual or institution acting on behalf of such agency for the proposed activity. State, tribal and local public colleges/universities do not have to pay a fee because they are affiliated with a government body. Proof of fee exempt status must be included in the application.

INSTRUCTIONS TO APPLICANTS

To expedite a final decision on your application, you are urged to coordinate with us as soon as possible for guidance in assembling a complete application package, and to send us your complete permit application package at least three months prior to the start of your proposed activities. If you are renewing or amending a valid permit, your complete application package must be received at least 30 days prior to the expiration of the valid permit. This time period begins when we receive a complete permit application package and does not include any time required for requesting clarification or additional information about your application.

The information provided in your permit application will be used to evaluate your application for compliance with the Endangered Species Act, its implementing regulations (which may require a 30 day public comment period), and with U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service policy. Receipt and possession of a permit under the Endangered Species Act should be regarded as a privilege, as we must balance permit issuance with our duties to protect and recover listed species.

Up-to-date annual reports and any other required reports under your valid permit(s) must be on file before a permit will be considered for renewal or amendment.

If your activities may affect species under the authority of the National Marine Fisheries Service (NMFS/NOAA Fisheries), then you may need to obtain a separate permit from that agency. In addition we share jurisdiction with NMFS/NOAA Fisheries for sea turtles (e.g., we evaluate applications for permits to conduct activities impacting sea turtles on land, and NMFS/NOAA Fisheries evaluates applications for permits to conduct activities impacting sea turtles in the marine environment). To apply for a permit to conduct activities with sea turtles in the marine environment or other species under NMFS/NOAA Fisheries jurisdiction, please contact them via their permit web page at http://www.nmfs.noaa.gov/pr/permits/

Our general permit regulations at 50 CFR 13.12(a)(9) allow us to collect such other information as we determine that is relevant to the processing of a permit application. Before you submit an application for an Enhancement of Survival permit, we may require that you conduct biological surveys to determine which species and/or habitat would be impacted by the activities sought to be covered under the permit. Biological surveys provide information necessary to develop an adequate Safe Harbor Agreement or Candidate Conservation Agreement with Assurances, and to assess the biological impacts of the proposed activities. In addition, the information provided in a biological survey can reduce the applicant's risk of take under Section 9 of the Endangered Species Act by ensuring that affected species and/or habitat are identified and appropriately covered under the permit.

You are required to obtain a Scientific Purposes, Enhancement of Propagation or Survival permit (commonly called a Recovery permit) from us before engaging in any biological survey activities that would take listed species. Contact our Ecological Services Field Office closest to the location of your activity to obtain technical assistance in determining the need for both a biological survey and a Recovery permit for your survey activity. The contact information for our Ecological Services Field Offices can be found on the U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service's office directory web page at http://offices.fws.gov/directory/listofficemap.html

If a biological survey is required, you will need to send us your complete Recovery permit application package at least 3 months prior to commencement of survey activities to facilitate processing of your Recovery permit application. The Recovery permit application is designated as U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service form # 3-200-55.

We maintain a list of Recovery permittees (such as biological consultants) who have authorized the release of their contact information to third parties for conducting biological surveys on a contract basis. This list is provided to the public at the discretion of each U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service Regional Office as time and workload allow. Please be aware that this list does not represent an endorsement by us of any particular permittee.

If you are not applying as an individual but as a business, corporation, institution, or non-Federal public agency (block B. on page 1 of the application), the person to whom the permit will be issued (e.g., the landowner, president, director, executive director, or executive officer) is legally responsible for implementing the permit. Although other people under the direct control of the permittee (e.g., employees, contractors, consultants) receive third party take authorization in their capacity as designees of the permittee, the individual named as the permittee ultimately is legally responsible for the permit and any activities carried out under the permit except as otherwise limited in the case of permits issued to State or local government entities under 50 CFR 13.25(d).

If you wish to coordinate the processing of this permit application through an authorized agent, and to have that agent represent you as the primary contact with us, check the box below. Sign (in blue ink) and date the authorization statement, and provide contact information for your authorized agent.

☒ I hereby authorize the following person to act as an authorized agent on my behalf in the processing of this permit application and to furnish, upon request, supplemental information in support of this permit application.
