Gary,

The three Nikolski feather samples were shipped on Monday and received at Alpha Analytical on Tuesday of this week.

UAM 154 was picked up on 1/30/05 and was added to the bag with seizure tag #770660 (FYI. In the most recent materials we sent, you'll see that we no longer believe that this specimen should have been collected as it did not meet the definition of carcass used by the Unalaska teams).

UAM 155 was also picked up on 1/30/05 and added to #770660.

UAM 267 was collected on 1/31/05 and added to the bag with seizure tag #860981.

Attached below are chain of custody forms covering custody of the specimens in Anchorage, I'm working to track down forms for the period of time prior to that.

Jenifer-

Are the samples received by Alpha Woods Hole Labs the Nikolski background birds? Do you have a chain of custody for these samples?
