

Fairbanks Youth for Habitat

Are you looking for a FUN summer job?

Are you between the ages of 13* and 14?

(*You must be 13 by June 1, 2014 in order to apply for the program this year.)

Would you like to learn more about careers in fisheries and aquatic habitat restoration?

Would you like to make Fairbanks a better place for wildlife and people?

Then this job is for you!

The U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service is offering a summer Habitat Conservation Corps.

Session 1: June 23 - July 10

Session 2: July 14 – July 31

(Please check your session preference)

Tuesday- Friday, 9:00 – 4:00 Daily

The program will include activities like:

Stream bank restoration techniques

Stream surveys

Water Quality testing

Wildlife Research

Fish collecting

Invasive plant removal

Native planting

Possible Overnight Camping

One very important requirement: To be selected, you must be interested in science and natural resources, and like being active outdoors.

Your reward for participating: You'll receive a $400 stipend for successfully completing the program. You'll also have lots of fun, learn about fisheries and habitat restoration careers, and gain a better understanding and greater appreciation of the natural resources in your local area. If this sounds like the thing for you, fax, e mail or mail your application to:
