TAKE THE GEOTOUR

1. Go to www.geocaching.com to register for your free account and learn more about geocaching.
2. You will need a GPS device or a smartphone with a geocaching app www.geocaching.com/live.
3. Visit our website (below) or search www.geocaching.com to link to the GPS coordinates for the BGGT geocaches.
4. Enter the coordinates into your GPS enabled device and navigate to each of the 16 geocaches. FYI-There are First to Find (FTF) prizes in each cache!
5. When you find the cache, be sure to sign the logbook, collect a BGGT passport card, and leave the cache as you found it (hidden).
6. Follow the virtual path to answer the trivia question on the BGGT passport card.
7. Track the caches you've visited using this passport book and enclosed postcard trivia answer sheet. You can also log your finds at www.geocaching.com.
8. Submit your trivia answers by November 14, 2012 to be eligible to win prizes via email to wild4ak@gmail.com, or by mail to:

GEOCACHING GUIDELINES

- Geocaches should never be buried or placed in a location that might cause unnecessary concern.
- If you take something from the cache, leave something of equal or greater value.
- Keep geocache contents family friendly- no food, explosives, knives, or illegal substances.
- Respect local laws and obey posted signs.
- Log your geocaching experience at www.geocaching.com
- Protect the integrity of the game pieces
- Be considerate of others and avoid causing disruption or public alarm.

U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service

SINCE YOU MUST FLY OR BOAT TO GET TO NEARLY ALL OF ALASKA'S 16 NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGES, WE ARE BRINGING EACH OF THEM TO YOU. A SERIES OF 16 GEOCACHES HAVE BEEN HIDDEN AT 16 OF THE 223 ANCHORAGE PARKS. EACH ONE FEATURES ALASKA'S AMAZING NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGES.

ON ALASKA'S NATIONAL WILDLIFE
REFUGES

- Learn about the legendary Kodiak bear at the Kodiak Refuge Visitor Center before spending a day photographing them fishing at the Refuge's Frazer Falls.
- Paddle the Swan Lake Canoe System on Kenai Refuge

• Land record size pike on the Innoko River at Innoko Refuge

• Camp and catch a naturalist program at Deadman Lake Campground on Tetlin Refuge

• Chase countless rainbows and silvers on the wilderness rivers of Togiak Refuge

• Mingle with half a million caribou in the fall on the rolling tundra of Selawik Refuge

• Migrate to Homer in early May to attend the Kachemak Bay Shorebird Festival at Alaska Maritime Refuge's Islands and Ocean Visitor Center

• Do the Hulahula . . . River, by raft in the heart of Arctic Refuge

• Hunt clouds of migrating waterfowl in September on Izembek Refuge

• Go surf and turf, experiencing five national wildlife refuges while sailing on an Alaska ferry from Homer to Dutch Harbor (April through September)

The U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service manages 16 national wildlife refuges in Alaska, providing for wildlife recreation such as hunting, fishing, interpretation, education, wildlife viewing, and photography.
