

Tetlin National Wildlife Refuge Volunteer Program

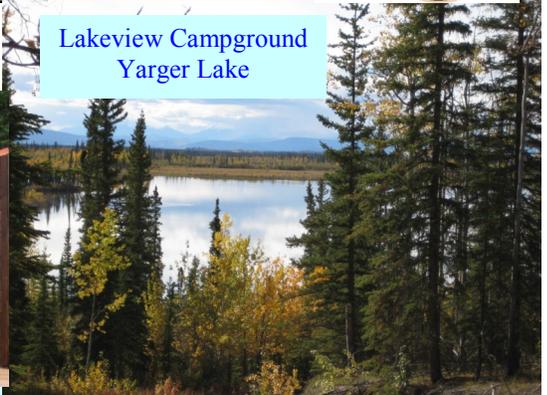

Deadman Lake

Volunteers help visitors interpret the resources of our Refuge

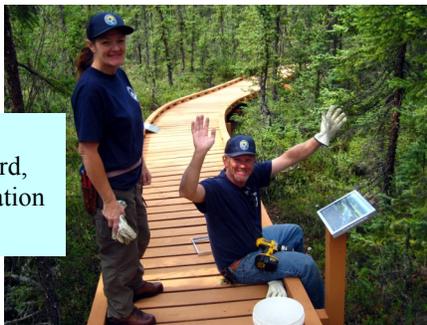

Lakeview Campground
Yarger Lake

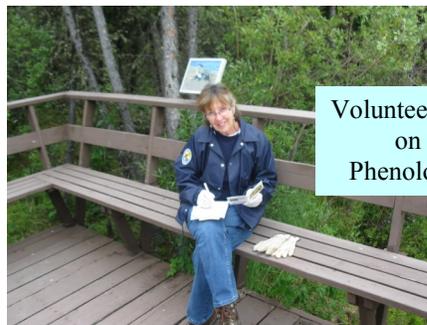

Are you interested in experiencing the wildlife, habitats, and Native culture of Interior Alaska?

By volunteering through one of these programs at the Tetlin National Wildlife Refuge, YOU can make a difference!

- Deadman Lake Campground RV Host - Mile 1249 Alaska Highway- is one of two campgrounds on our Refuge. Campground volunteers conduct visitor contacts, help with campground maintenance at both campgrounds, small construction projects, and evening interpretive programs.

Volunteers, Lea & Craig Crawford, celebrating the installation of trail signs.

Volunteer, Evelyn Ray, working on a Citizen Science Phenology project for Tetlin.

We're looking for friendly, energetic couples to help fill 8 week positions (either May 21 to July 20 or July 16 to September 7, 2012). These opportunities are for couples traveling with their RVs trained in visitor services and light maintenance. This remote location has an RV site with accommodations for water (a water buffalo), generator power, and sewer. Volunteers work four days/week for a total 32 hours and are provided with a meals/ incidentals allowance (approximately $31.50/day worked/ person) while working on site along with a one time travel allowance of up to $300./ couple. Applicants should have prior experience in communicating with the public, possess basic maintenance skills, be able to lift and carry up to 30 lbs., possess current CPR and first aid certifications, and have valid driver's licenses. Volunteers will need to work independently & with guidance from staff.
