

Circumstance	Management Tool
Non-injurious, nonlethal conflict minimization practices by livestock owners or their agents	Opportunistic hazing of any gray wolf in a non-injurious manner is permitted at any time .
Potentially injurious non-lethal hazing techniques by a livestock owner or their agent	Opportunistic hazing of any gray wolf in a potentially injurious non-lethal manner is permitted at any time .
Take in self defense	Any person may take a gray wolf in defense of the individuals life or life of another person
Agency take of wolves determined to be a threat to human life and safety	State or Federal agent may promptly remove any wolf that is determined to be a threat to human life or safety
Taking of wolves in the act of attacking or chasing livestock	After issuance of a permit , any landowner may immediately take a gray wolf in the act of attacking livestock on their private land or land that they are legally grazing.

LIVE LIFE
OUTSIDE