LAUTENBERG CERTIFICATION FORM

The Lautenberg Amendment to the Gun Control Act of 1968, specifically 18 U.S.C. § 922(g)(9), makes it unlawful for any person who has been convicted of a misdemeanor crime of domestic violence to ship, transport, possess, or receive firearms or ammunition. This prohibition applies to people convicted of such misdemeanors at any time. There is no exception for law enforcement officers.

A misdemeanor crime of domestic violence includes the use or attempted use of physical force, or the threatened use of a deadly weapon, committed by a current or former spouse, parent, or guardian of the victim; by a person with whom the victim shares a child in common; by a person who is cohabiting with or has cohabited with the victim as a spouse, parent, or guardian; or by a person similarly situated to a spouse, parent or guardian of the victim.
