

On the Wings of Time

Migrate through our bird conservation stations filling in the blanks below using the information provided at each station. Complete each space correctly and claim your prize! Prizes are per person and can be claimed at the Information Station.

Time Period: Early 1800's-

It was estimated that _____ billion Passenger Pigeons once filled the skies. (USFWS Ecological Services)

Time Period: Late 1800's-_____ hunting for food and feathers brought many species of birds to the edge of extinction. (Alaska Bird Club)

Time Period: Early 1900's-

The Lacey Act in _____ and the Migratory Bird Treaty Act of _____ was passed to help protect birds from market hunting and habitat loss. (Alaska Botanical Garden)

Time Period: 1930-1950-

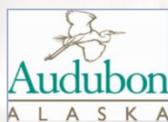

Ninety-eight cents of every _____ dollar will be used to purchase wetlands for waterfowl and other wildlife. (U.S. Forest Service)

Time Period: 1960-1990-

Bird conservation became even stronger with passage of the Endangered Species Act of _____. (Audubon)

Time Period: 1990's-2016-

Birds have always been important to native peoples around the globe for spiritual, _____ and _____ purposes. (ADF&G & Citizen Science)

Photos by John Gomes