

Workshop: Funding Sources and Partnerships Available for Tribal Natural Resources Improvement and Management

June 23, 2009

Hosted by the

U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service

1340 Financial Boulevard, Suite 234

Great Basin Room

Reno, Nevada 89502-7147

- 8:30 - 8:45 Welcome & Introductions
- Gerald Jones, Assistant Regional Forester, Pacific Region, Bureau of Indian Affairs
David Wooten, Tribal Partnerships Specialist, Pacific Southwest Region, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service
- 8:45 – 9:45 Cooperative Agreements, 638 Contracting and Leveraging Funds
Gerald Jones-Assistant Regional Forester, Pacific Region, Bureau of Indian Affairs
- 9:45 – 10:00 Break
- 10:00 – 11:30 Funding Sources for Fish and Wildlife Management and Enhancement
Amy Salveter – Biologist, Partners for Fish and Wildlife Program and David Wooten, Pacific Southwest Region, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service
- 11:30 – 12:00 Nevada Department of Wildlife – Landowner Incentive Program Overview
Connie Lee – Landowner Incentive Program Coordinator
- 12:00 - 1:00 Lunch – On your own
- 1:00 – 1:45 Programs for Enhancement and Protection of Natural Resources
USDA Natural Resources Conservation Service (speaker to be determined)
- 1:45 – 2:30 Technical Assistance and Funding for Water-Related Natural Resource Issues
Patricia Rivera – Tribal Liaison, Bureau of Reclamation
- 2:30 – 2:45 Break
- 2:45 – 3:30 Overview of EPA Programs Benefitting Tribal Natural Resource Management
Stephanie L. Wilson – Tribal Program Office, Environmental Protection Agency
- 3:30 – 4:00 Acquiring Excess Government Vehicles & Equipment
Gerald Jones – Regional Forester, Pacific Region, Bureau of Indian Affairs
- 4:00 – 4:15 Break
- 4:15 - 5:15 Tribal Consultation on Bald and Golden Eagle Take Permits Implementation Guidance
Marie Strassburger – Migratory Bird Chief, Pacific Southwest Region, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service
- 5:15 – 5:45 Speakers will be available to answer questions and provide technical assistance