General Information

Las Vegas National Wildlife Refuge is seasonally open to hunting the following species: mourning dove, white-winged dove, Eurasian collared-dove, desert cottontail rabbit, and eastern cottontail rabbit. Desert and Eastern cottontail rabbits are incidental take only. Hunting for dove and rabbits will be allowed on Las Vegas National Wildlife Refuge in the designated area only (see map). Each person in the hunt area must have a refuge hunt permit in their possession. Hunters 17 years old or younger must hunt under the supervision of a hunter 21 years of age or older.

Accessibility Information

Refuge employees strive to accommodate access to all hunters with disabilities. If you require a reasonable accommodation in order to participate in the hunt please contact the refuge. Improvements are being made to increase accessibility of the hunt area. Parking Area B has an accessible gate and a compacted gravel road leads from the gate into the hunt area. A non-hunting assistant may accompany a hunter to assist with accessibility if needed.

Firearms

Persons possessing, transporting, or carrying firearms on National Wildlife Refuge System lands must comply with all provisions of federal, State, and local law. Persons may only use (discharge) firearms in accordance with refuge regulations (50 CFR 27.42 and specific refuge regulations in 50 CFR Part 32). Dove and Upland Game may be taken with a shotgun fired from the shoulder, provided it is no larger than 10-gauge and is not capable of holding more than three (3) shells total. Only shells containing federally approved nontoxic shot may be used or possessed while on the refuge. Hunters may also use muzzle-loading shotguns, bows, and crossbows.

Hunting Regulations

Hunting is permitted in accordance with Federal regulations governing public use on National Wildlife Refuges as set forth in Title 50 of the Code of Federal Regulations. Hunting will be in accordance with applicable State of New Mexico regulations in addition to the conditions stated.
