January 29, 2008	A petition was filed by Friends of Animals requesting the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service list 14 parrot species under the Endangered Species Act (ESA).
July 14, 2009	The Service published a 90-day finding (74 FR 33957), in which the agency determined that the petition presented substantial scientific and commercial information to indicate that listing may be warranted for 12 of the 14 parrot species. In the Service's 90-day finding on this petition, the agency announced the initiation of a status review to list as endangered or threatened under the ESA the following 12 parrot species: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Blue-headed macaw (Primolius couloni), 2. Crimson shining parrot (Prosopeia splendens), 3. Great green macaw (Ara ambiguus), 4. Grey-checked parakeet (Brotogeris pyrrhoptera), 5. Hyacinth macaw (Anodorhynchus hyacinthinus), 6. Military macaw (Ara militaris), 7. Philippine cockatoo (Cacatua haematuropygia), 8. Red-crowned parrot (Amazona viridigenalis), 9. Scarlet macaw (Ara macao), 10. White cockatoo (Cacatua alba), 11. Yellow-billed parrot (Amazona collaria), and 12. Yellow-crested cockatoo (Cacatua sulphurea). The Service initiated the status review to determine if listing each of the 12 species is warranted, and initiated a 60-day public comment period to allow all interested parties an opportunity to provide information on the status of these 12 species of parrots. The public comment period closed on September 14, 2009.
July 28, 2010	A settlement agreement was approved, in which the Service agreed to (in part) submit to the Federal Register by July 29, 2011, a determination whether the petitioned action is warranted, not warranted, or warranted but precluded by other listing actions for no fewer than four of the petitioned species.
