

Display, Participation & Rights, Reproduction Agreement for the Crushed Ivory Design Challenge

The undersigned applicant, who has prepared and submitted an original design to the Crushed Ivory Design Challenge (Challenge) of the U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service (FWS), agrees to the following conditions concerning display, participation and reproduction rights:

1. The applicant affirms that their entry is their own creation produced without violation of copyright or intellectual property rights, and was neither copied nor duplicated from previously published art, photography or design work of any medium, or from images of any kind previously published on the Internet.
2. Ownership of the original design may, at the option of the applicant, be retained by him/her and it may be copyrighted, copied, reproduced, published or otherwise distributed by the applicant, but any copyright of the design or any agreement made by the applicant with any other person or company covering the use of the design expressly shall be made subject to rights granted to the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service for the purpose of promoting public awareness, as set out in this agreement.
3. Entries will not be returned to the applicant.
4. The applicant thereby waives any claims for damage or loss that might otherwise lie against the United States Government once the applicant's entry is in the custody of the managements of those exhibitions.
5. Any original design entry may be copied, reproduced, published, and distributed by FWS to others for reproduction, copying, production, and publication for educational or informational purposes. In addition, the winning design may be made available, without compensation to the applicant, for reproduction for non-commercial and other purposes.
6. If selected as the Challenge winner, the applicant's original design will be used as the basis for creating one or more educational installations, and as a result, changes may be made to the applicant's original design at the discretion of FWS.
7. No Member of or Delegate to Congress shall participate in any part of this contract/agreement or receive any benefit from this agreement (41 U.S.C. Section 22).
8. The applicant agrees to provide his/her signature for use on all Crushed Ivory Design Challenge products at no cost to the federal government.
9. If applicant is under the age of 18, a parent or legal guardian must provide his/her signature prior to submission of this document.
10. The information below will be contained in an electronic database maintained by FWS and will not be used by FWS for any other purpose other than to register the applicant.
