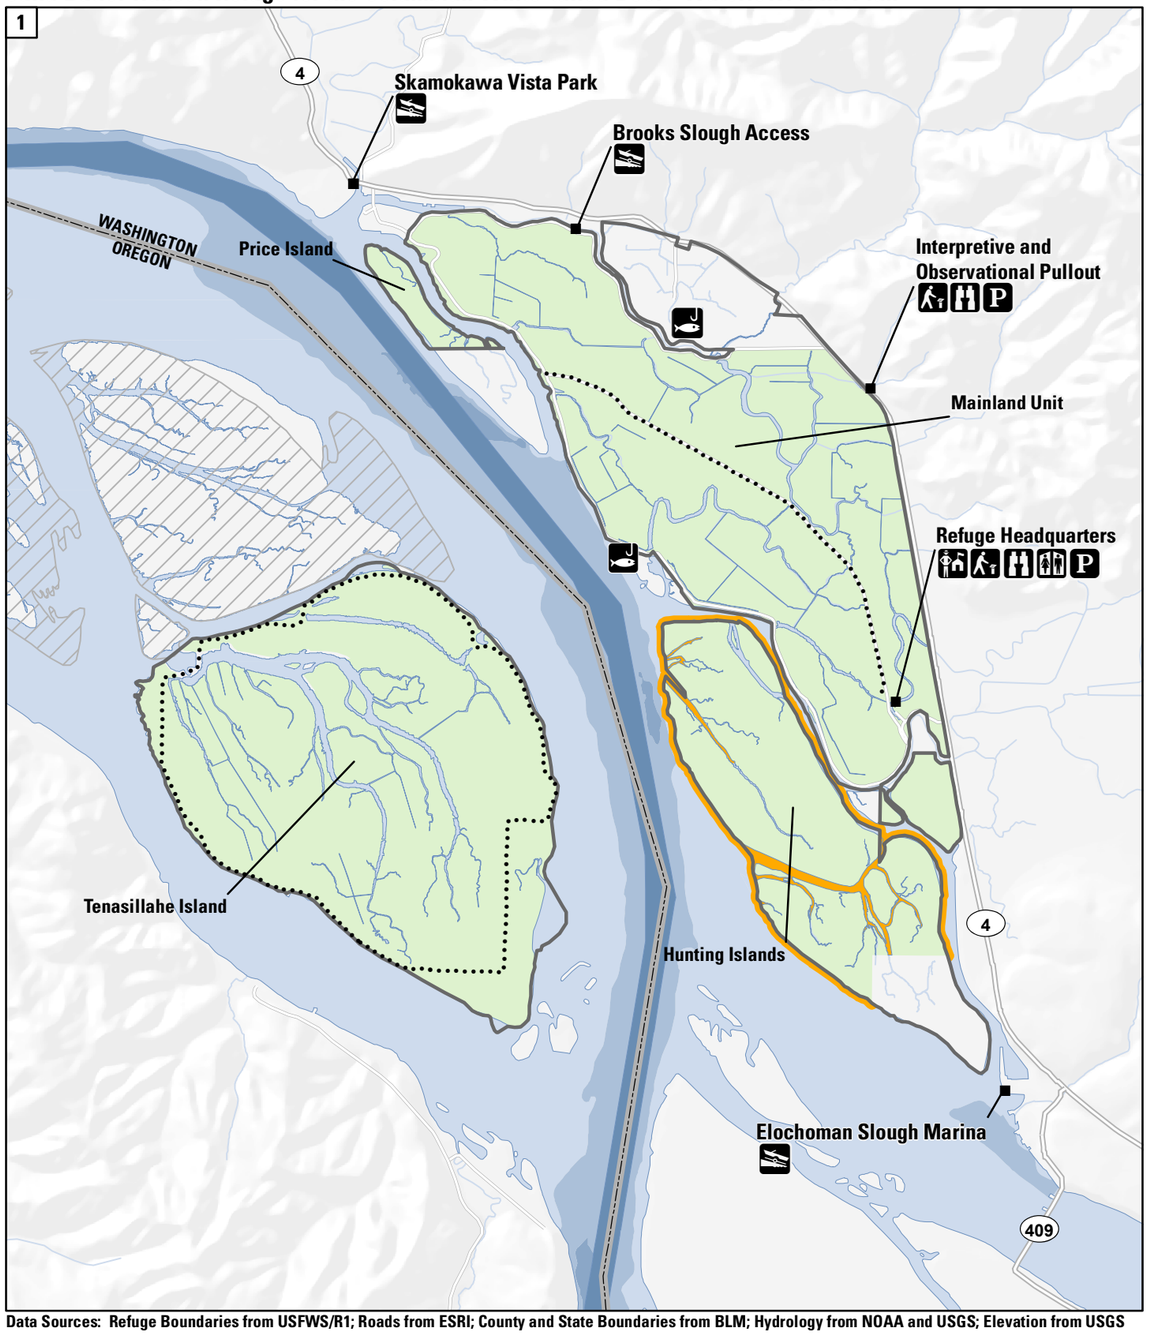
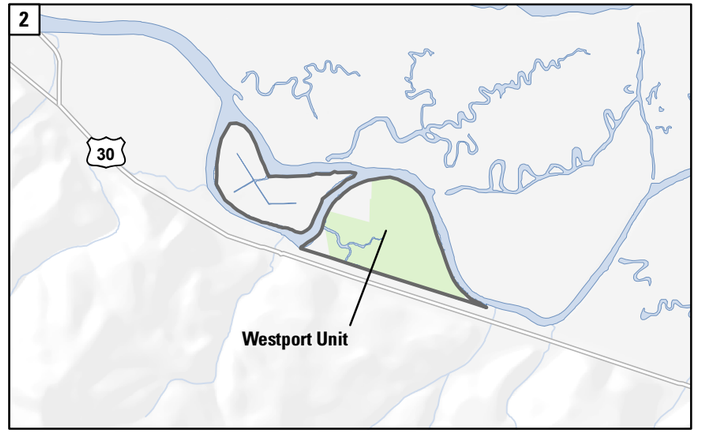
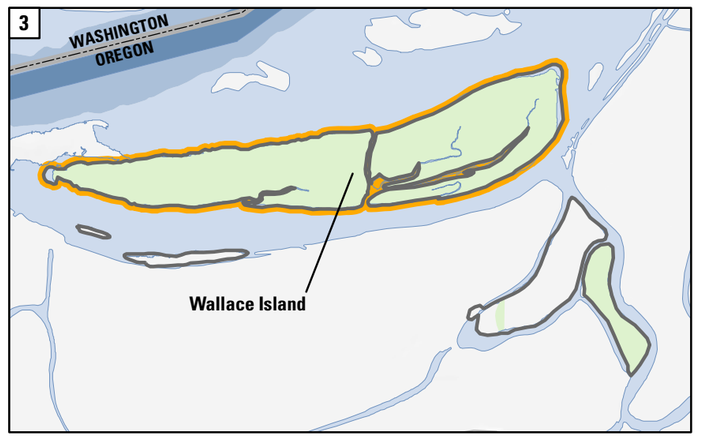
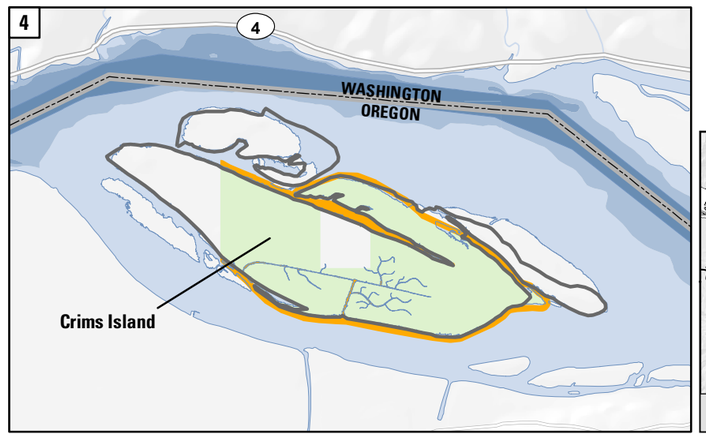
Julia Butler Hansen Refuge for the Columbian White-tailed Deer - Waterfowl Hunt Plan









Legend

Public Use

- Waterfowl Hunting Along Shoreline
- Walking Trail (Seasonally Closed)
- Refuge Headquarters
- Interpretive Kiosk
- Wildlife Viewing Area
- Restroom
- Parking
- Fishing Access
- Boat Launch

Refuge Land Status

- Approved Boundary
- Refuge Managed Lands
- Lewis and Clark National Wildlife Refuge

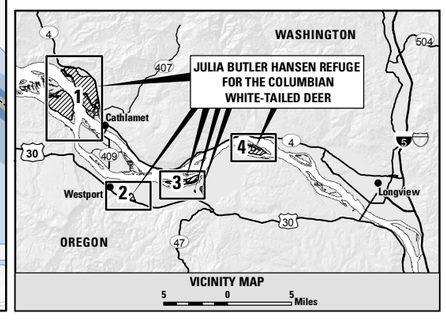
Waterfowl hunting is permitted on the open shorelines of Hunting, Crims, and Wallace Islands.

Waters around the refuge are open to fishing in accordance with state regulations. Bank fishing is permitted along open shorelines. Interior sloughs in all refuge units are closed to fishing.

0 Miles 1

0 Kilometers 1

UTM ZONE 10N
NAD 83



Data Sources: Refuge Boundaries from USFWS/R1; Roads from ESRI; County and State Boundaries from BLM; Hydrology from NOAA and USGS; Elevation from USGS