

INTERNATIONAL CONSERVATION CHIEFS ACADEMY

September 12-23, 2016

National Conservation Training Center (NCTC),
Shepherdstown, West Virginia

“Strengthening Global Law Enforcement Relationships to Combat Illegal Wildlife Crime”

The International Conservation Chiefs Academy (ICCA) will bring together 40 leaders of conservation law enforcement agencies from Africa in an effort to build capacity and collaborate with other leaders. Funding for the ICCA will be provided by the Department of State, Bureau of International Narcotics & Law Enforcement Affairs (INL). The U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service, Chief, Office of Law Enforcement will host the ICCA at the National Conservation Training Center (NCTC), Shepherdstown, West Virginia. The National Association of Conservation Law Enforcement Chief’s (NACLEC) in conjunction with the Office of Law Enforcement will provide the instruction and facilitate participation. The ICCA is being designed in support of the Office of the President of the United States, National Strategy for Combating Wildlife Trafficking.
