

WHAT DO YOU WANT TO BE WHEN YOU GROW UP?

Getting youth excited about careers in conservation can:

- Lead to a rewarding job that contributes to a healthier planet
- Promote stewardship of our natural resources
- Instill life-long enjoyment of outdoor learning and recreation

VOLUNTEER BUILDS SEA TURTLE FENCE | PEA ISLAND NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGE

Your Employer of Choice

Think about a career with the U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service, a federal agency whose mission is to conserve, protect and enhance fish, wildlife, plants and the places they live.

We hire park rangers, engineers, scientists, communicators, refuge managers, law enforcement officers, and administrative and human resources specialists.

Even if you are still in school, there are lots of opportunities including: Youth Conservation Corps (YCC), Student Conservation Association (SCA), Student Temporary Experience Program, Student Career Experience Program, Student Education Employment Program and internships. For more information about student opportunities, go to <http://www.fws.gov/jobs/index.htm>.

For more information about working for the U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service, go to <http://www.fws.gov/humancapital/>.

And to find out where you can get outdoors and have fun in nature any time, go to <http://www.fws.gov/letsgooutside>.

