

2012 Federal Duck Stamp Art Contest – Parking Information

Parking is monitored on Weber State University campus between 7:00 am and 6:00 pm, Monday – Friday. To ensure you are in compliance and do not receive a parking ticket, please read and follow these instructions:

- Thursday (Duck Stamp Contest Setup)
 - You may come to the loading dock behind the Student Union to unload, or you may unload in front of the Browning Center. Please do not leave your vehicle unattended.
 - After unloading, please park in a designated parking area.
 - The following parking options are available:
 - Public Pay Lot and meter parking – prices and time limits apply and are strictly enforce.
 - Purchase a day pass from the Information Booth at the campus entrance for $2.00/day.
 - Park for free lot at the Dee Event Center (4450 Harrison Blvd) and ride the free shuttle, exiting at Circle Drive behind the Stewart Library. The shuttle runs approximately every 15 minutes. Note: The shuttle can be busy in the morning, so plan your trip accordingly.

- Friday
 - The following parking options are available:
 - Public Pay Lot and meter parking – prices and time limits apply and are strictly enforced.
 - Purchase a day pass from the Information Booth at the campus entrance for $2.00/day.
 - Park for free lot at the Dee Event Center (4450 Harrison Blvd) and ride the free shuttle, exiting at Circle Drive behind the Stewart Library. The shuttle runs approximately every 15 minutes. Note: The shuttle can be busy in the morning, so plan your trip accordingly.
 - Campus parking is free after 6 pm. For those wishing to attend the evening presentation, the closest parking lot to the Shepherd Union is the Public Pay Lot or the A10 lot.

- Saturday
 - Parking on campus is free. The closest parking to the Shepherd Union is the Public Pay and A10 lots.

For additional information, visit the 2012 Federal Duck Stamp Art Contest Website:

http://www.fws.gov/mountain-prairie/ea/campaigns_DS.cfm