HYDE ADDS THREE MEMBERS
TO MIGRATORY BIRD BOARD

The addition of three more members-at-large to the Advisory Board, Migratory Bird Treaty Act, reorganized early in the year, was announced today (June 22) by Secretary of Agriculture Hyde. The new members are:

Newell B. Cook, Salt Lake City, State Game Commissioner of Utah and president of the Western Association of Fish and Game Commissioners.

S. B. Locke, Chicago, Ill., Conservation Director of the Izaak Walton League of America.

Nathan Moran, San Francisco, sportsman, formerly chairman of the Game Refuge and Public Shooting Grounds Advisory Committee of California.

These new appointments raise the membership of the board to eighteen. Secretary Hyde, in announcing these appointments, said that "The Advisory Board, Migratory Bird Treaty Act, now has a broad geographic representation and also well represents the interests of sportsmen, conservationists, and agriculture."

The purpose of the board is to study and recommend policies on questions affecting the migratory waterfowl, such as length of shooting seasons, bag limits, zoning, and measures for conserving and increasing this resource.

The board will hold its second meeting at Washington July 8 to discuss proposed regulations for the coming shooting season.
