

From H. Zahniser, Fish and Wildlife Service
14 February 1942

HZ
HPS
APW
WRD

The Procurement Division of the Department of the Treasury today (February 16) gets Arthur P. Weinerth from the Fish and Wildlife Service as an assistant purchasing officer. With a continuous Government employment record of more than 34 years, Mr. Weinerth was one of the senior seven members of the old Bureau of Biological Survey still serving the consolidated Fish and Wildlife Service at the time of his transfer.

Sent to Washington papers--Post, News, Times-Herald, and Star.