

US Fish and Wildlife Service Internship Opportunity

- Location: Monomoy National Wildlife Refuge, Chatham, MA
- Position Title: Biological Intern (multiple positions, please inquire for more detail)
- Duties: Duties include but are not limited to: censusing a variety of nesting birds (seabirds, shorebirds, and wading birds); monitoring productivity from laying to fledging of Common and Roseate Terns, American Oystercatchers, and Piping Plovers; banding tern chicks; trapping and resighting adult terns; tagging and surveying spawning horseshoe crabs; lethal and non-lethal predator control (mammalian and avian); erecting predator exclosures, posting nesting areas; data entry; some light maintenance; and educating the public. Responsibilities may vary due to the strengths of individuals.
- Qualifications: Applicants must have the ability to perform the physical duties of the position including being able to hike long distances (extensive beach walking) and being able to lift and carry at least 50 pounds. Applicants must be able to work with minimal supervision, independently and in a group; and be able to work with the public of all ages in a professional manner. Previous experience with beach nesting birds, field work in a field camp setting, data collection, bird identification, and an academic background in wildlife biology, zoology, environmental science or a related field are preferred. Applicants must have a valid driver's license, a social security number, and a bank account located in the United States.
- Salary: Stipend will be up to $230/week based on yet-to-be-determined annual funding appropriations for 2011. Interns will live in a remote field camp setting during the work week and will have free dormitory style housing in Chatham, MA on their days off. Schedules will be 40 hours per week, but will vary frequently in the length of day and start time. Days off may not be consecutive.
- Employment Details: Internships are 4 to 6 months beginning between 4 April and 16 May (absolute latest start date). The position involves working long hours, nights, weekends, and holidays, and living in one of two field camps on the island with other refuge staff for at least 5 days at a time. There is no heat, electricity, or running water in field camp. A background check will be required to gain necessary computer access at the Refuge.
- How to Apply: Send a letter of interest, resume, and contact information for 3 references (including emails) by email to: Kate_Iaquinto@fws.gov or by snail mail
