Local Artist to Exhibit Artwork in Hadley Gallery

- What: The U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service will host an art exhibit by Hadley resident Patricia Hayes. Artwork includes both nature photography and oil paintings.
- When: The exhibit runs from July 1 through August 31, 2010. The gallery is open from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday except federal holidays. An opening reception is scheduled on Friday July 30th from 5 pm to 7:00 pm. There is no charge for admission. Adults will be asked to show a photo I.D. to enter the building.
- Where: U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service Gallery, 300 Westgate Center Drive, Hadley, Mass. The building is located south of the intersection of Route 9 and Route 116 North.
- Who: A life long artist, Patty is inspired and rewarded by the creative process in both painting and photography. Often times she uses her photography as inspiration for her paintings. Patty has exhibited some of her work in the Pioneer Valley and also runs a freelance business that includes graphic design, illustration and editorial services. You can view four of Patty's portfolios on her website: www.hadleydesignworks.net
