Local Artist to Exhibit Artwork in Hadley Gallery

- What: The U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service will host an art exhibit by Amherst resident Leslie Cerier. Photographing the Jewels in the Water captures light, water and transformation.
- When: The exhibit runs from November 1 through December 31, 2010. The gallery is open from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday except federal holidays. An opening reception is scheduled for Thursday November 18, from 5:00 pm to 7:00 pm. There is no charge for admission. Adults will be asked to show a photo I.D. to enter the building.
- Where: U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service Gallery, 300 Westgate Center Drive, Hadley, Mass. The building is located south of the intersection of Route 9 and Route 116 North.
- Who: Leslie's photography is a reflection of the peaceful energy she finds in the woods. She is passionate about light, water and landscapes. Her work is about inspiration, healing and sunlight, which she captures in her photography. To learn more about Leslie visit her website at <http://www.lesliecerier.com>
