Comments (use reverse side if necessary): I oppose the de-listing of manatees from federal protection. If de-listing does occur, then all current protections need to stay in place including slow speed zones. I have never seen a manatee without scars from boat props. If slow zones are removed how do you plan to protect them from speed racers?

Cards are for the purposes of calling speakers to the podium. As such, they are only retained for that purpose and destroyed thereafter; UNLESS they contain written comments. Those cards become part of the official record for the decision, and are reviewed and considered by USFWS staff preparing the final decision. These comments will either be incorporated into the transcript for this hearing or be scanned and uploaded to the public record at <http://www.regulations.gov> under docket number FWS-R4-ES-2015-0178.

the manatee population is vulnerable and the only reason we have the few we do today is because of slow water zones. De-listing will pose nothing more than threaten US fish and wildlife has been bought and paid for by special interest groups. There is no logical reason to remove the population from federal protection and nothing has been done to prevent the decline from happening in the first place. Don't forget how the manatees became endangered in the first place: Humans. What have you done to prevent humans from continuing its irresponsible selfish behaviors that drove the population down to less than 600. If you can't stop the source of the problem then why would you remove the only protections in place?
