

Winter Bird Count 4 Kids

January 18, 2014
8:30 am to 12:30 pm
at Red River National Wildlife Refuge*

- For children ages 8 - 17 with an adult
- Learn to identify common winter birds
- Practice using binoculars and spotting scopes
- Binoculars and Field Guides provided
- Team up to count winter birds on the refuge
- Tabulate count data and enter into eBird
- Participate in a Citizen Science Project
- A free, pizza lunch is provided courtesy of the Friends of the Red River Refuge

*The Refuge is located in south Bossier City at 150 Eagle Bend Point off of the new extension of the Arthur Ray Teague Parkway. Refuge phone number is 318-742-1219