Waterfowl Hunter's Meeting at McNary National Wildlife Refuge

Hunters interested in the waterfowl hunting program at McNary National Wildlife Refuge are encouraged to attend a post-season hunting meeting. The refuge is seeking feedback from waterfowl hunters and would also like to discuss potential changes to the hunt program. "Waterfowl hunting is a popular activity on the refuge, and this is an opportunity for hunters to discuss concerns and issues," states Refuge Manager, Lamont Glass. The meeting will be held at the Mid-Columbia River National Wildlife Refuge Complex Headquarters on Tuesday, February 16, from 6:00p.m. – 7:30p.m.

The Mid-Columbia River National Wildlife Refuge Complex Headquarters is located at 64 Maple Street in Burbank, WA. Phone: 509-546-8300. From the Tri-Cities, go east on I-182 and US Highway 12 to Burbank. At the Humorist Road stoplight, turn left. Turn left on Lake Road and travel ½ mile to the headquarters building is on left.
