

Tuberolabium guamense © Raulerson and Rinehart

Common Name: No Common Name

Scientific Name: Tuberolabium guamense

Description: An epiphytic orchid (Orchidaceae) with roots that elevate the leaves and flowers away from the tree trunk. Leaves are leathery, oblong, about 13 cm long and 1.5 cm wide. Small white flowers are on a rachis about 3.5 cm long.

Status: Guam and CNMI (Rota)

Threats: Agriculture and urban development, rats, nonnative plants, fire, typhoons, low numbers of individuals.