

Exhibit 1
Examples of Category 1 Allegations

Category 1 violations may involve the following types of misconduct:

- (A) Civil rights violations
- (B) Extortion
- (C) Offer or acceptance of bribes
- (D) Theft of government property
- (E) Misuse or embezzlement of funds
- (F) Fraud
- (G) Larceny
- (H) Sale of or trafficking in illegal drugs
- (I) Wildlife and Fisheries violations (50 CFR; 16 U.S.C.; 18 U.S.C. 42)
- (J) Submission of false claims (18 U.S.C. 287)
- (K) Concealment, removal, or mutilation of official documents (18 U.S.C. 2071)
- (L) Conflict of interest (18 U.S.C. 207-208)
- (M) Firearms law violations (18 U.S.C. 921, et. seq.)
- (N) Discharge of a firearm in a manner that appears to constitute a violation of law, or Department or agency regulation pertaining to use of deadly force
- (O) Use of official position for private gain
- (P) Unauthorized use or manipulation for illegal purposes of a Federal computer and/or database (e.g., CIS, TECS, and NCIC)
- (Q) Discrimination or sexual harassment between employees accompanied by violence, physical force or other egregious conduct
- (R) Knowingly conducting an unauthorized search or seizure
- (S) Misrepresentation, falsification, concealment, or withholding of a material fact; or refusal to testify or cooperate in an official inquiry, investigation, or other proceeding
- (T) Off-duty conduct resulting in arrest, detention, or conviction for a Category 1 offense related to Government employment, or failure to report it to Service management.
- (U) Theft of funds, valuables, and personal property of persons in Service custody

(V) Improper association/relationship with informants or known or suspected criminals

(W) Aiding and abetting in the commission of a Category 1 offense

(X) Failure to promptly report a Category 1 allegation of misconduct listed above