with the application as the cover page. Do Facsimile Transmittal that was downloaded should use the form HUD electronic application package. Co-Sponsors 96011, Facsimile Transmittal found in the submitting it via facsimile, using Form HUD electronic application, that sponsor electronic files can be attached to the Exhibit 2(a) of the Section 811 application. The naming convention for each electronic file should correspond to the labeling convention used in the application Table of Contents found on page 14236, column 3, of the Section 811 program NOFA. For example, the organizational documents of a Co-Sponsor would be included under Part II. Exhibit 2(a) of the Section 811 application. Electronic files can be attached to the electronic application using the Attachment Form contained in the electronic application package.

If the applicant cannot create an electronic file or does not have access to a scanner, the required signed documents may be submitted to accompany the electronic application by completing the required information and submitting it via facsimile, using Form HUD–96011. Facsimile Transmittal found in the electronic application package. Co-Sponsors should use the form HUD–96011 provided by the sponsor that is submitting the electronic application. The submitting sponsor should fill in the SF 424 form prior to giving the Form 96011 form to the co-sponsors. By following these directions, the form HUD 96011 will be pre-populated with the submitting sponsor’s organizational information exactly as the submitting sponsor has provided it on the electronic application. In addition, HUD will be using the unique identifier associated to the downloaded application package as a means of matching the faxing submitted with the applications received via Grants.gov. The Facsimile Transmittal form also has space to provide the number of pages being faxed and information on the type of document. Co-Sponsors or the submitting applicant can insert the document name in the space provided labeled Program Component.

Co-Sponsor’s documents sent by facsimile as part of an electronic application submission, must use Form HUD–96011. Facsimile Transmittal that was downloaded with the application as the cover page. Do not insert any additional or other cover pages as it will cause problems in electronically matching the pieces of the application.

On page 14243, following section IV.B.2.d.(3), third column, add a new paragraph a to read as follows:

In 96011, Facsimile Transmittal to be used for faxing third party letters and other documents for your electronic application in accordance with the instructions in the General Section.

On page 14255, section IV.E.5., middle column, paragraph 5 is revised to read as follows:

5. Expiration of Section 811 Funds. The Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2005, requires HUD to obligate all Section 811 funds appropriated for FY2005 by September 30, 2005. Under 31 U.S.C. 1551, no funds can be disbursed from this account after September 30, 2010. Under Section 811, obligations of funds occurs for both capital advances and project rental assistance upon fund reservation and acceptance. If all funds are not disbursed by HUD and expended by the project Owner by September 30, 2010, the funds, even though obligated, will expire and no further disbursements can be made from this account. In submitting an application, you need to carefully consider whether your proposed project can be completed through final capital advance closing no later than September 30, 2010. Furthermore, all unexpended balances, including any remaining balance on PRAC contracts, will be cancelled as of October 1, 2010. Amounts needed to maintain PRAC payments for any remaining term on the affected, contracts beyond that date will have to be funded from other current appropriations.

On page 14256, section V.A.1.c., first column, remove from the first sentence the words “36 points” and add in its place the following: “36 months.”

On page 14256, section V.A.2., delete the third paragraph that begins in the middle column and continues to the third column. In addition, revise section V.A.2(a) which begins in the third column to read as follows:

(a) (10 Points) If a determination has been made that there is sufficient sustainable long-term demand for additional supportive housing for persons with disabilities in the area to be served, the project is to be awarded 10 points. If not, the project is to be awarded 0 points. No other point values are allowed.

On page 14262, Appendix A, Local HUD Offices, paragraph 2.c., is revised to read as follows:

c. Applications for projects proposed to be located in Washington, DC and Maryland must be submitted to the Baltimore, Maryland Office.

On page 14267, Appendix A, Local HUD Offices, the telephone and TTY telephone numbers for the San Francisco Office are revised to read as follows: telephone, (415) 489–6676; TTY, (415) 489–6564.

Notice of Proposed Reinstatement of Terminated Oil and Gas Lease MTM 89466

AGENCY: Bureau of Land Management, Interior.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: Per 30 U.S.C. 188(d), the lessee, Omimex Canada, Ltd. timely filed a petition for reinstatement of oil and gas lease MTM 89466, Blaine County, Montana. The lessee paid the required rental accruing from the date of termination.

No leases were issued that affect these lands. The lessee agrees to new lease terms for rentals and royalties of $10 per acre and 16½ percent or 4 percentages above the existing competitive royalty rate. The lessee paid the $500 administration fee for the reinstatement of the lease and $155 cost for publishing this Notice.

The lessee met the requirements for reinstatement of the lease per Sec. 31 (d) and (e) of the Mineral Leasing Act of 1920 (30 U.S.C. 188). We are proposing to reinstate the lease, effective November 1, 2004 subject to:

- the original terms and conditions of the lease;
- the increased rental of $10 per acre;
- the increased royalty of 16½ percent or 4 percentages above the existing competitive royalty rate; and
- the $155 cost of publishing this Notice.
