Dear Mr. Morris,

I am writing in regards to our agreement to let Red Wolves on our property. It was my understanding that we would receive a check for $1200 each year. And our agreement started on 10/1/96 and ran through 9/30/97. I received a check on Oct. 1, 1997 for $1200.00, I am taking this to mean this check was for the afore stated time period. Since, I also signed another agreement to run from 10/1/97 through 9/30/98, am I due the same amount for this time period and when should I expect to receive this check? Please let me know something concerning this matter. It would be best to write me a letter as we aren't home much during the day, and would be unable to answer the phone.

Sincerely,

United States Department of the Interior

Mr. [REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED]

Time has again come for you to please invoice the USFWS for providing red wolves and red wolf personnel access to [REDACTED] Farms under a Partners Agreement during the last fiscal year ending 30 September 2000. To receive payment you must provide ARNWR a receipt that includes the following wording:

a. This invoice is submitted as per executed agreement which requires the Fish and Wildlife Service to pay [REDACTED] Farms $1,200.00 for allowing red wolves to inhabit [REDACTED] Farms and for allowing Fish and Wildlife personnel access to [REDACTED] Farms during the period 1 October 1999 through 30 September 2000.

Thank you for your cooperation and support.

Sincerely,

M. L. Morse
