

PROJECT LEARNING TREE AND THE U.S. FISH & WILDLIFE SERVICE ARE TEAMING UP! JOIN US FOR AN ENGAGING WORKSHOP!!!

ALL CHILDREN LEARN OUTSIDE!!

Come see how to use PLT activities in a schoolyard to inspire place based learning and stewardship.

WHEN: June 26th, 2014

WHERE: A.M.- Stone Lakes National Wildlife Refuge / P.M.- Alice Birney Schoolyard Habitat

TIME: 9 am – 3 pm

COST: $30.00

LUNCH: Provided, please bring a water bottle and dress for the outdoors

CEU's: Available through PLT/ California State University San Marcos

Participants in this workshop will:

- Receive the PLT PreK-8 Curriculum guide containing more than 100 activities and ideas for fully integrated and aligned lesson plans.
- Be introduced to additional resources including PLT GreenSchools! and GreenWorks Grants, USFWS's Schoolyard Habitat program, and National Wildlife Refuge field trips.
- Visit Stone Lakes National Wildlife Refuge and a Schoolyard Habitat project to engage in demonstrations of PLT and outdoor learning.
- Receive certification as a PLT Educator
- Be included in CA PLT Network for additional EE opportunities and continued Professional Development

To Register contact: Sandy Derby, CA PLT State Coordinator: stderby@ucanr.edu
Registration open until June 20th, 2014
Details and map to follow upon registration.

Project Learning Tree is your tool and a Schoolyard is the place!!

